Enjoy the Cotswold lifestyle

Welcome to Deanfield Glade, in the popular north Oxfordshire village of Hook Norton. This traditional collection of 2, 3 & 4-bedroom homes sits at the gateway to the Cotswolds – a cherished National Landscape characterised by rolling hills, thatched cottages and honey-toned ironstone.

Deanfield Glade reflects Hook Norton’s most loved characteristics, with the use of ironstone and brick elevations to create gentle, attractive street scenes. Inside, each home is comfortably specified, with fully integrated kitchens, Roca bathroom suites and energy efficient fittings, including an air source heat pump and EV charging point to every property. Residents will find connections to the natural environment through landscaped open spaces and a children’s play area.

Where community comes first

Fiercely independent, Hook Norton is proud of its distinct, self-sufficient identity – a place where people and business enjoy semi-rural success. As well as essential facilities, including a village hall, sports and social club, pubs, a primary school, a village shop and Post Office, there are other innovative highlights.

The Hooky Hub is just one – a low-carbon, co-working space that's invaluable for home and hybrid workers. The Hook Norton Brewery is another, with its refreshing take on an age-old industry. Visit the Malthouse Kitchen for lunch, book one of the meeting rooms for a corporate event or take the official brewery tour.

Community spirit in Hook Norton is kept high by events such as Music at the Crossroads, the annual summer street party and the Hook Norton Fine Ales Festival. The village is also home to a variety of associations and clubs, including tennis, cricket, football and amateur dramatics.

Picturesque living

Hook Norton bursts with 17th and 18th century character so perfect it enjoys Conservation Area status. The village's historic roots are reflected in the pleasing architecture, with chocolate box thatched cottages, the Gothic-inspired Victorian brewery and mellow ironstone houses making up some of the village's 65 listed buildings.

Historic trails, including Butter Hill and Cradle Lands, meander through the bucolic landscape, offering enchanting ways to explore the area. Take a walk out to one of two local viaducts, admire the ancient Rollright Stones and spot native wildlife in Hook Norton Cutting Nature Reserve.

Educating locally

Image courtesy of Hook Norton C of E Primary School

Hook Norton Church of England Primary School is rated 'Good' by Ofsted, with the inspector noting happy, confident pupils. Alternatively, families can consider Sibford Gower Endowed Primary School and Great Rollright Church of England Primary School – both also rated as 'Good'. Chipping Norton School is the closest secondary option, followed by The Warriner School on the edge of Banbury. Sibford School and Bloxham School offer independent education close by.

Keeping exclusive company

Hook Norton enjoys illustrious neighbours, giving residents of Deanfield Glade access to some amazing opportunities. Just five miles from the village is Chipping Norton – an area of the Cotswolds renowned for its antiques shops, theatre and regular farmers' market.

Visitors can also take an early morning dip at Chipping Norton Lido, watch a film at the boutique Living Room cinema, enchant the entire family at Fairytale Farm or people watch at one of the town's cosy cafés, as you never know who may pop in for a flat white.

Many of Chipping Norton's high-calibre residents make the short journey to Soho Farmhouse for its extensive members'-only facilities. These include a wellness centre, five eateries, tennis and padel courts and 180 artworks on permanent display.

Travel 20 minutes in the opposite direction and you'll find yourself at Daylesford Organic – a stunning farm, farm shop and lifestyle store, benefitting from a variety of dining experiences, a bar with terrace, a cookery school and the Bamford wellness spa.

Atmospheric Banbury is 10 miles from Hook Norton. Spend time exploring the medieval lanes in the Old Town, find the 'fine lady' statue at Banbury Cross and explore Tooley's Boatyard on the Oxford Canal. Banbury is also home to the closest mainline train station to Deanfield Glade.

Start making travel plans

Customer Testimonials

Read what some of our recent purchasers love about their new Deanfield home.

“We found Deanfield didn’t just include the bare minimum, but instead put considerable thought into creating a desirable specification for its buyers. This was a really important factor that attracted us to purchasing our first home.”

Jenny & Alfie
Deanfield Park, Ickford

“The houses are built in the local stone, sympathetic to the rest of the village, which is perfect. Some new builds I’ve been in, you can hear people walking and talking upstairs, but you can’t hear here, they’re really solid. I would totally recommend it.”

Jo-Anna
Deanfield Heights, Sibford Ferris

“I’m so impressed with the fixtures and fittings and everything is really good quality. I’ve heard such nightmares about other people moving into new builds so I was a bit cautious, but I’m thrilled with everything.”

Jude

Reserving your new home

Once you have found the right home for you, you will enter into a reservation agreement which details the reservation fee and an agreed date by which exchange of contracts must take place. We know circumstances change and you can reserve your new home with the reassurance of a 14-day cooling off period, within which you may cancel the agreement and receive a full refund of the reservation fee.

Prior to exchange of contracts, you will be invited to an Information Giving Meeting to enable the sales and construction teams to fully explain the benefits of the development and your chosen home. This will also be your opportunity to ask any questions you may have prior to committing to your purchase.

Before completion

After exchange of contracts and approximately two weeks prior to your completion date, you will be invited to visit and view your home in its virtually complete condition, or to appoint a qualified inspector to undertake the visit on your behalf, at your cost, if you prefer.

Prior to completion, a home demonstration will also be undertaken, where details of how to look after your new home, including how to maintain the heating and electrical equipment, will be explained.
